By-golly you missed it again! Mary Layton from our club gave an interesting and outstanding presentation on Driftwood Sculpturing. If you are interested she may entertain coming to a weekday carving session to coach you with your driftwood project.

I tried to locate the reference book she showed everybody. $#@!@##^%$!!! Amazon.com, barnsandnoble.com, e-bay, and half.com all have them at $160 to $220 for a used edition. However, Forest Gems in Port Angeles/Townsend area have them!!!! They are new and $34.95 plus postage. Forest Gems is on the WWW at www.forestgems.com and 360-379-1713.

As you see in the June minutes we cancelled the club meeting due to lack of attendance. If you don't come to meeting and vote, don't crab about the Board's decisions. We did have a Board meeting with 4 guests. We, also, had enough terrific raffle items that everyone got one or two.

Till next time;

John
