Coastal Carvers 19th Annual Artistry in Wood show

at Chinook Winds Convention Center in Lincoln City, Oregon

January 15 and 16.

There are so many of our CWCA members that attend the above show that I am reprinting an article on housing from the Coastal Carvers newsletter.

If you tell them that you are attending the show, the rates at the Ashley Inn (Best Western) is $79.99 each single king or $89.99 for a double queen. Great breakfast and shuttle to the show.

Chinook Winds: $79.99 each, ocean view. You can walk to the show.

Logan Road RV Park: Full hookup and shuttle. Back in $31.83 or pull through $37.79.

Tax is not included in any of the prices.

Thanks, Ann

NWCA Show Participation

Thanks to all that manned our table at the Northwest Carving Show & Sale on November 13 and 14. They were: Denise Taylor, Howard & Lila Merriott, Pete & Maureen Farr, Cecile Jesse, Ginger Anderson, Roy & Grace Teague, Paul Kressin, Bob Haynes, Ray Adams, Bob & Ann Engle, Jan Gray & Pauline Nagel. We had a good turnout and the NWCA appreciated our attendance. No one entered competition this year but we should strive to carve something that can be entered next year. That is a major way they can pay for their show - that plus the raffle sales and donated prizes. There is always someone who will take up the carvings and pick them up.

There were several members who won gifts in the raffle this time. The winners were Bob Engle (3), John Templar (1), Ann Engle (2), Pauline Nagel (1) and Paul Kressin (2). If there were others please accept our apology for not mentioning them. This was about the best our members have ever done.

Thanks again to those who participated!

Holiday Party!

At the

Tumwater Mobile home estates Community Center

Note from the Editor

Hope everyone had a great Thanksgiving!

Looking forward to seeing you all at the holiday party!

Wishing you all Happy Holidays
And A Wonderful New Year!

till next time,

Rob

It will be pot luck, so bring your favorite dish, finger food, salad, or desert. Coffee, plates and silverware will be provided by the club. If you would like to participate in a gift exchange bring a $10 gift (ladies bring for ladies and men bring for men).

We have a special treat for our entertainment this year. Eileen McKenzie-Sullivan will be playing and singing and we may even have the pleasure of her husband joining her. She always makes for a great party if you remember when she did this for us before. We're happy to have her back and look forward to a great get together.

With our gatherings and meetings so seldom it will be a great pleasure to see everyone attend and renew acquaintances. All do not carve on the same days so a gathering will be lots of fun.

Hope to see you there!
