entertain us with his great singing and playing his guitar.

CLUB UPDATE

The Capitol Woodcarvers Association will become a social woodcarving group as of January 1st. After considerable conversation at the carving sessions and at the Christmas Party it was decided that we would no longer be an active carving club officer format. We will, however, participate in the shows at Kitsap County, Longview and Northwest in Puyallup. We will also have a club picnic and Christmas party if people are interested.

We will attempt to keep everyone informed through a bi-monthly newsletter and welcome any information to share in such newsletter. We will need people to handle the shows and parties mentioned above so do not be shy about taking part in these limited occasions.

Dues will be due on March 1 and you can mail your $12 to Capitol Woodcarvers Association, P. O. Box 11988, Olympia, WA 98512 or give them to Ann Engle. She will be gone until March but any one of our active participating carvers can collect and hold them until her return.

Carving will continue to take place Monday at Capitol Place, Tuesday at Lacey Senior Center, Thursday at Fir Lane Retirement Center and Friday at Olympia Senior Center.

Enjoy your carving and social gatherings.

The members holding office as of our February 1, 2010 beginning year are as follows:

- President - Vacant
- Vice President - Vacant
- Secretary - Vacant
- Treasurer - Ann Engle
- Newsletter Writer - Rob Bononi

Note from the Editor

As you can see, the club is having some problems. We need people to step up and take an office position and we need people to help out at the shows. But guess what, this is not a new issue.

There have been rumors going around about the club folding. I don't know why it is going around, but it is.

Well it's not time to quit. Yes things are tough. Yes we are having problems. But I'm pretty sure I am going to keep carving, and I know there are others who feel the same. I guess that means there is still a need for a club.

Capitol Woodcarvers' Association will Continue.

Rob
